ORDER:

Heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Pleader for Home appearing for the respondents.

2. Petitioner seeks a writ of mandamus declaring the action of the respondents 1 to 5 in summoning the petitioner to the police station visiting the residential house of the petitioner without registering any crime, directing the petitioner to make payment of money due to the 6th respondent, as illegal, and arbitrary.

3. Counter has been filed by the 3rd respondent stating that he never called the petitioner on 28-06-2006 alleging that a complaint has been made by the respondents 3 to 6. It is stated that the respondent never called the petitioner to police station and never summoned and in fact, no complaint has been filed and no case has been registered against the petitioner and therefore, the question of issuing summons calling for the petitioner does not arise. It is further stated that if the petitioner really wants any protection or security they are always ready to provide necessary protection against the life threat of the petitioner.

4. In view of the aforesaid denial of the allegations I am of the opinion that no orders need be passed in this Writ Petition.

5. Accordingly, Writ Petition is dismissed. No order as to with costs.
